Previous approved child protection qualifications

- CHCCHILD1B or CHCCHILD1C - Identify and respond to children and young people at risk of harm – delivered by a TAFE or other RTO
- CHCCHILD2 support the rights and safety of children within duty of care requirements (TAFE NSW only)
- CHCCHILD2A support the rights and safety of children within duty of care requirements – delivered by a TAFE or other RTO
- Identify and respond to children and young people at risk (3294G identify and respond to risk of harm) – delivered by TAFE NSW only
- Identify and respond to children and young people at risk (combination of 3290K legislative and ethical requirements and 3292P child protection) – delivered by TAFE NSW only

In addition, the Making a difference child protection qualification (delivered by various providers) is recognised as approved only if the person who completed it did so before 1 October 2004, and the person was an authorised supervisor under the Children's Services Regulation at the time.

A person who has already completed one of the approved courses in child protection listed above is not required to update their training. However, holders of previously approved child protection qualifications are encouraged to update their knowledge with current child protection requirements.

If you have any questions about the approved course list, please email the Early Childhood Education and Care Directorate at ececd@det.nsw.edu.au
